

Head Instructor

Jim Sandlak
Former NHL Pro

Pro-Tips Sports Corp. is pleased to have Jim Sandlak as our head instructor. Jim has an extensive hockey background. After a successful junior career with the London Knights and Kitchener Rangers he was selected 4th overall in the 1985 NHL draft by the Vancouver Canucks. He won a gold medal for Canada with our junior team and spent over 10 seasons in the NHL. Jim is currently active in minor hockey as the coach of the Junior Knights AAA minor Bantam team. Jim is also a member of the Kitchener Sports Hall of Fame.

PRO-TIPS SPORTS PHILOSOPHY

The signature of Pro-Tips Sports is to offer each and every individual the opportunity to take their game to the next level, whether that is house league B to A or AAA to junior and beyond. Pro-Tips Sports offers professional training from hockey professionals. "Practice makes perfect" is a philosophy that assumes perfect technique is already achieved. We stress and demand skill development at all levels to foster improved abilities. Pro-Tips Sports also goes beyond teaching basic hockey skills. Our philosophy teaches and trains players how to implement their skills. Hockey is a game of constant 1 on 1 battles, where situations are always changing. Understanding these situations in conjunction with superior skills allows players to become successful. None of these benefits can be achieved with large groups, therefore Pro-Tips Sports always maintains a low student to qualified instructor ratio. We offer quality instruction and a true hockey curriculum.
