

Head Instructor

Dave MacQueen

Sarnia Sting Head Coach

Dave is in his first season as Head Coach of the Sarnia Sting.

He spent the past seven seasons behind the bench of the Erie Otters where he enjoyed success winning an OHL Championship, a regular season title as well as three consecutive Midwest Division Championships.

Dave a 10-year OHL bench boss began his Ontario Hockey League career as Head Coach of the Peterborough Petes in 1993 where he spent 3 years. The Petes won the 1996 OHL Championship under MacQueen.

Following his championship run with the Petes, MacQueen spent two years (96-98) as the Assistant Coach with the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning working with Stanley Cup Champion (Calgary Flames) Head Coach Terry Crisp.

Dave's playing career included three seasons in the OHL (76-79) spending two years in Ottawa before joining the Sudbury Wolves where he scored 60 goals in his final season in the league. He would go on to enjoy a pro career spanning 7 seasons before retiring in 1986.
